With RetroGamez 2.4, you will enjoy playing the following games: Atomic Tilt, Darcy, Fix Me Up, Bust-A-Move 1, Cast, RetroGamez 2.4 is a tribute to the old games. However, a more extensive collection of the old games is possible. We have added more content into the RetroGamez 2.4. The two new games are Gyromite 64 and Robotron Megablast. Gyromite 64 is a 2D kart racer. A quick play will lead you to enjoy this game. You have to compete in the race at 5 different tracks. Each track has different level of difficulty. These tracks are identical to the ones in the original Gyromite game. The game has 3 difficulty levels and more than a dozen of challenges in which you have to beat. The challenge levels use the characters and the speed of the original game. The Robotron Megablast is a simple shooter game. The enemies appear very fast in Robotron Megablast. They appear very fast, which means that you have to take them quickly before you get hit. One by one you will be able to get the items and complete the challenges. You have to move and shoot in order to get enough points. There are various power-ups, useful items that you will get during the game. You will have more access to the items by completing the challenges. For the first try, the game is very easy. However, it will soon become more difficult. You will find out the true strength of your reflexes. The game has a cool old school theme. The controls are not easy and you have to use a lot of skill to play. The retro look and the cool
